Re: Turner Network Sales, Inc. v. DISH Network, L.L.C., Civil Action No. 17-CV-7599

Dear Judge Abrams:

I write on behalf of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant Turner Network Sales, Inc. ("TNS, Inc.") concerning the date on which TNS, Inc. files its motion for summary judgment in the above-referenced matter. Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff DISH Network L.L.C. ("DISH") consents to the relief requested in this letter-motion.

On October 4, 2018, the parties filed a joint letter-motion proposing a briefing schedule for the motion for summary judgment to be filed by TNS, Inc. and requesting an extension of the page limitations for their briefs. See Dkt. No. 71. On October 10, 2018, this Court granted in part and denied in part the letter-motion, adopting the parties' proposed briefing schedule but stating that opening and opposition briefs shall not exceed 35 pages each, with the reply brief not to exceed 15 pages. Dkt. No. 73.

Additionally, on October 9, 2018, the parties filed a joint letter-motion requesting that the parties be permitted to file certain of their summary judgment papers under seal. See Dkt. No. 72. As of the time of filing this letter, the Court has not yet ruled upon that letter-motion.

In addressing the filing date for TNS, Inc.'s motion for summary judgment in their joint letter-motion, the parties informed the Court that "TNS, Inc. intends to file its motion and supporting papers on or before October 12, 2018." At the time that letter-motion was filed, the parties did not know when the Court would issue its rulings on the letter-motion and the joint letter-motion to seal. In light of the Court's recent ruling with respect to the page limitations for briefing, TNS, Inc. believes that it will need a few additional days to prepare its papers to conform to the Court's ruling.

Accordingly, TNS, Inc. requests that it be permitted to file its motion for summary judgment on or before the later of October 18, 2018, or three business days after the Court rules on the parties' joint letter-motion to seal (Dkt. No. 72). Counsel for DISH has indicated that DISH consents to the relief requested in this letter.

Respectfully submitted,
